Piano Lessons at Barnham Primary School

I am pleased to write that I will be continuing to offer Piano lessons in the afternoon during the school day for children in years 2-6.

HOW?

Lessons will be on a one-to-one basis and last 20 minutes for beginners (This would extend to 30 minutes when studying for Grade One).

The cost will be £10 for 20 minutes (£13.50 for 30 minutes) paid a term in advance for 10 or 12 weeks, depending on the length of the term.

I will provide the book for beginners we shall use at a cost of £7.

WHEN?

Wednesday afternoons during school time.

WHY?

Piano is a great instrument to learn from an early age as it uses both treble and bass clef music. Children often choose a second instrument later and find they have a good grounding of understanding music from their Piano lessons and progress quickly.

However.....as with any skill, it is important that practice takes place between lessons to progress at a pace to keep interest and enjoyment. Access to a piano or good sized keyboard at home is important for this.

Who?

Children over 6 years old are best suited to learning the Piano. Being able to read is a good indicator of whether a child is ready to tackle reading music.

I have taught as a primary school teacher for over 10 years (including class music). Since having my own children, Eve and Will, I have turned my skills to tutoring Maths and English and teaching the piano from my home. I have taught Piano lessons in Barnham school since January 2016 and in another primary school for 6 years.
